Enclosing a dollar for another year's subscription to the NEWS, Eli Shaffer says business is good and work plenty at Winber; mines are running almost full time, corn and buckwheat crops good, and weather fine.

As Mrs. John Stigers and sister Miss Alice Hunter, and Mrs. J. T. Bridges—all of Hancock, were returning home from Hagerstown last week, one of the hind wheels of the automobile in which they were traveling, came off. An accident of this kind is attended with more inconvenience than danger, but the ladies were frightened just the same.

We had a call last Friday from a descendant of the original McConnells of this place—Mr. C. A. McConnell, of LaHarte, Ill. He and Mrs. McConnell have been visiting in the County for some time. Mrs. McConnell and Mrs. Casper Brant, of Taylor township, are sisters. Edwin Brant Taylor township, and Clarence Hoover, near Dane, accompanied the McConnells to town last Friday.

There Can Be No Doubt About the Results in McConnellsburg.

Results tell the tale. All doubt is removed. The testimony of a McConnellsburg citizen.

Can be easily investigated. What better proof can be had? Mrs. D. I had but little strength and my housework became a burden. One box Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Trouts Drug Store, cured me."

DOAN'S MADE A CURE

NOT CASE OF ACTUAL COUNT

Modern Child Had Told Her Story and Would Amend It in Only One Way.

She was an extreme example of the modern child. Although her years were few, she seemed the perfect mistress of every situation. Dressed in an extreme frock, she reclined gracefully in a chair, entertaining the caller until her mother appeared.

"I see you like cats," said the caller, who had observed two white kittens tumbling about the rug in the next room.

"Oh, yes, in reason," answered the modern one in her blase voice. "I do not object to two, or even three, cats. But when you have as many as the woman who had the place next to us at the seashore last summer, it becomes annoying."

"Did she have too many pets?" "She had 50 cats. Fifty large, black cats. They used to sit in a row on our front lawn every evening, and you could see their green eyes gleaming a mile away. It was too uncanny."

"Oh, Jessie," exclaimed the visitor involuntarily. "You're exaggerating dreadfully. No woman ever had 50 cats."

Jessie stared levelly into the caller's eyes.

"Or more," she said nonchalantly. "Fifty or more."

GLAD TO RETURN THE FAVOR

Alleged Appeal From Gov. Francis of Tennessee to Gov. Taylor of Missouri Hard to Resist.

When the late Senator "Bob" Taylor was governor of Tennessee, says the Washington Star, he received a letter from an inmate of the Missouri penitentiary, stating that his name was Taylor and that he was related to the governor, on account of which relationship he begged Governor Bob to use his good offices with the governor of Missouri to procure him a pardon.

To Governor Francis of Missouri Governor Bob at once addressed the following letter: "Dear Governor Francis, There's a fellow over in your penitentiary who writes me that his name is Taylor and says he's some kin to me, and, on the strength of this, wants me to ask you for a pardon. If you can see your way clear to help the fellow, I wish you would, and if any of your kinfolks ever get over here in my penitentiary I'll return the favor."

"Sincerely yours, "ROBERT TAYLOR."

YOU as a good housekeeper are particular about the coffee you buy. Experience has taught you that an expensive percolator, a dainty coffee service or a skilled cook cannot of themselves make good coffee. Hence you buy only that coffee whose quality is assured. Just as surely as coffee to be fragrantly delicious must originate from a good bean, correctly and freshly ground, so also the best crude petroleum and careful scientific refining are necessary to a high-grade kerosene. There is such a kerosene—it's

ATLANTIC Rayolight OIL

It's the one kerosene you can buy by name. It will leave no soot and it doesn't smoke. It burns without smell, shedding an even, soft yet brilliant light, and, when put in a stove or heater, it gives quick, certain results at a low fuel cost.

But, with all these qualities, its price is identical with the unknown and possibly poorly refined kind. Ask for Atlantic Rayolight Oil and then you can be certain you're buying the best at a price you'd pay for the ordinary product.

Give your rubber plants a bath of Atlantic Rayolight Oil and tepid water—it makes them glossy and beautiful and kills the bugs that would otherwise eventually wither them up.

That's only one use out of many. What do you do with kerosene? If you've got a good use, perhaps you may be able to exchange it for a beautiful stove. See these advertisements.

Keep the Bathroom Well Ventilated

Not only in the summer months, but every day of the year it's necessary to the family health. Too cold in the winter time, you say. Not a bit of it, if you'll get a

PERFECTION Smokeless Oil Heater

It doesn't smoke, is inexpensive to buy and to use. You'll find it at practically all dealers.
